

Restorative Practices and Prosocial Skills Training

Summer 2019 Central/Southern Illinois Training Series

Interested in learning more about non-exclusionary student discipline? Register today for one or both of our summer training opportunities. On day one we will learn about restorative practices as a straightforward problem-solving framework that can be used as an alternative to exclusionary discipline. On day two we will learn about prosocial skills training as an intervention designed to promote prosocial behavior in adolescents using techniques to develop social skills, emotional control, and moral reasoning. All workshops will begin at 10 a.m. and end at 4 p.m. Lunch and clock hours will be available. Register for one or both trainings. Trainings will be held at the following locations:

June 11 & 12, Bloomington IEA Office

June 25 & 26, Springfield IEA Professional Development Center

Space is Limited! Register Today: <http://www.cvent.com/d/dbq3n8>
